

MAKING PARENTS LIVES EASIER

MOST POPULAR MEDIA TOPICS:

- How to help your child make better choices – If your child doesn't have a drive and a passion your child is going to make choices to fit in. Depending on who your child hangs out with, these choices may not be within your child's best interest.
- How to help your child select a college major and relevant career that utilizes their talents and abilities – What is worse than having a child unhappy and not getting the guidance they need?
- How to help your child change their mindset so they see clearly the opportunities that have been put in front of them and take advantage of them – Can you see the advantage of helping your child become more independent and see the leader they are and letting that shine through?

VALUE ADD FOR THE AUDIENCE:

LAWEEKLY

Crystal Olivarria raised over $70,000 from grants and scholarships to help pay for her higher education at two private schools; The Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in San Francisco and Holy Names University in Oakland, California. Crystal passes on her knowledge and wisdom by carefully designing programs to help children develop skills they need to have a competitive advantage. When Crystal isn't designing programs she is enjoying fashion, food and dancing.
